

Present Simple with Non-Action Verbs (Beginner)

Use	Form
1. Some verbs only describe a CONDITION, STATE or BELIEF. These verbs are NOT used in the continuous form. Examples: like, love, hate, want, know, believe, hear...	I / You / We/ They + V1 He / She / It + V1 + s
I like English. NOT I am liking English. She loves me. NOT She is loving me. I know him. NOT I am knowing him.
2. Some verbs have BOTH action and non-action meanings. Examples: think, look, feel, have, be...
I think about my life. (non-action) OR I am thinking about my life at the moment. (action) The flower looks beautiful. (non-action) OR I am looking at you now. (action) She is funny. (non-action) OR She is being funny. (action)	